Secretariat: c/o Ama City Planning and Policy Division 18 Kidainui, Ama-shi, 490-1292 Direct line (ACIA): 090-3692-5931 (ACIA's website: http://acia.blog16.jp/ E-mail:ohsumiysh@yahoo.co.jp What is the Ama City International Association(ACIA)? We are a non-profic organization almed at committing to creating a safe and caring community by working international understanding. The following are the events for you. Please join us so you can reach anyone. * Management of Japanese classroom: Japanese Language classes to help foreign residents by JJ Nihongo Club. * International understanding and exchange: Promoting cultural understanding and exchange with friendship countries, Vietnam, Mali, Azerbaijan and countries of foreign residents living in Ama City. * Management of Aflican music classroom: African Drums, Djembe practice twice a month and performance activities by Djembe Music Band. *Other programs for foreign residents: Training session for disaster prevention, providing information and consultations. Holding of the 2012 Gathering of Ama Residents for International Exchanges, with 160 Participants Enjoying International Cusine and Devloping Friendships between Countries Hold in Jimokuji Kaikan on February 12, the 2012 gathering offered an opportunity to learn how to prepare national dishes of the world under the guidance of some foreign residents, from South Korea, the United States Hold in Jimokuji Kaikan on February 12, the 2012 gathering offered an opportunity to learn how to prepare national performing arts of Ama—along with a hula performance. Suitar and obce playing, as well as events performed by community groups and organizations for disaster hereparedness, language teass in the Jimokuji district: In FY 2012, the class will be offered again three times (May September, and January). Each class will consist of 10 lessons held on Sunday morning, Wednesday morning and evening, and Satuday morning. Location: Jimokuji Kominkan Contact for inquires: 090-6578-8048 (Takayama-san) or 080-	Newsletter of the Ama City International Association (ACIA) for International Exchange Programs
18 Kidainui, Ama-shi, 490-1292 Direct line (ACIA): 090-3692-5931 ACIA's website: http://acia.blog16.jp/ E-mail:ohsumiysh@yahoo.co.jp What is the Ama City International Association(ACIA)? We are a non-profit organization aimed at committing to creating a safe and caring community by working in close cooperation with foreign residents, while promoting international exchange and fostering international understanding. The following are the events for you. Please join us so you can reach anyone. * Management of Japanese classroom: Japanese Language classes to help foreign residents by JJ Nihongo Club. * International understanding and exchange: Promoting cultural understanding and exchange with friendship countries, Vietnam, Mali, Azerbaijam and countries of foreign residents living in Ama City. * Management of Aflican music classroom: African Drums, Djembe practice twice a month and performance activities by Djembe Music Band. * Other programs for foreign residents: Training session for disaster prevention, providing information and consultations. * Other programs for foreign of Ama Residents for International Exchanges, with 160 Participants Enjoying International Cuisine and Developing Friendships between Countries Field in Jimokuji Kaikan on February 12, the 2012 gathering offered an opportunity to learn how to prepare autional dishes of the world under the guidance of some foreign residents, from South Korea, the United States Nepal, Taiwan, and Brazil, with attendees enjoying such food and Sekkyo-Gonji-Bushi puppet theater—one of the raditional performation Japanese language class in the Jimokuji district: In FY 2012, the class will be offered again three times (May September, and January). Each class will consist of 10 lessons held on Sunday morning. Wednesday morning, Ucconing program information Japanese language class in the Miwa district (participants recruited for trial lessons): Before officially starting in September this y	Vol. 2 – March 2012 Edited and issued by the ACIA's editorial team
ACIA's website: http://acia.blog16.jp/ E-mait.ohsumiysh@yahoo.co.jp What is the Ama City International Association(ACIA) ? What is the Ama City International Association(ACIA) ? We are a non-profit organization a imed at committing to creating a safe and caring community by working in close cooperation with foreign residents, while promoting international exchange and fostering international understanding. The following are the events for you. Please join us so you can reach anyone. Management of Japanese classroom: Japanese Language classes to help foreign residents by JJ Nihongo Club . * International understanding and exchange: Promoting cultural understanding and exchange with friendship countries, Vietnam, Mali, Azerbaijan and countries of foreign residents living in Ama City. * Management of Aflican music classroom: African Drums, Djembe practice twice a month and performance activities by Djembe Music Band. * Other programs for foreign residents: Training session for disaster prevention, providing information and consultations. Holding of the 2012 Gathering of Ama Residents for International Exchanges, with 160 Participants Enjoying International Cuisine and Developing Friendships between Countries Held in Jimokuji Kaikan on February 12, the 2012 gathering offered an opportunity to learn how to preparr national dishes of the world under the guidance of some foreign residents, from South Korea, the United States Vepal, Taiwan, and Brazil, with attendees enjoying such food and Sekkyo-Cenji-Bush puppet theater—one of the raditional performing arts of Ama—along with a hula performance. Guitar and obce playing, as well as events performed by community groups and organizations for disaste preparedness, language teaching, and civic engagement, were also featured. Over 20 foreign residents joined his year and interacted with local people. Upcoming program information Japanese language class in the Jimokuji district: In FY 2012, the class will be offered again three times (May September	Secretariat: c/o Ama City Planning and Policy Division
What is the Ama City International Association(ACIA)? We are a non-profit organization aimed at committing to creating a safe and caring community by working international understanding. The following are the events for you. Please join us so you can reach anyone. * Management of Japanese classroom: Japanese Language classes to help foreign residents by JJ Nihongo Club. * International understanding and exchange: Promoting cultural understanding and exchange with friendship countries, Vietnam, Mali, Azerbaijan and countries of foreign residents living in Ama City. * Management of Alican music classroom: African Drums, Djembe practice twice a month and performance activities by Djembe Music Band. *Other programs for foreign residents: Training session for disaster prevention, providing information and consultations. *Holding of the 2012 Gathering of Ama Residents for International Exchanges, with 160 Participants Enjoying International Cuisine and Developing Friendships between Countries Held in Jimokuji Kaikan on February 12, the 2012 gathering offered an opportunity to learn how to prepare national dishes of the world under the guidance of some foreign residents, from South Korea, the United States Nepal, Taiwan, and Brazil, with attendees enjoying such food and Sekkyo-Genji-Bushi puppet theater—one of the raditional performing arts of Ama—along with a hula performance. Guitar and obce playing, as well as events performed by community groups and organizations for disaste prepardenses, language teaching, and civic engagement, were also featured. Over 20 foreign residents joiner his year and interacted with local people. Upcoming program information Japanese language class in the Jimokuji district (participants recruited for trial lessons): Before officially starting in September this year, the class will present trial lessons for beginning learners of the Japanese anguage. Local residents volunteer as instructors under the direction of a professional Japanese language eacher. Scheduled date and time 4:00 p.m.	18 Kidainui, Ama-shi, 490-1292 Direct line (ACIA): 090-3692-5931
We are a non-profit organization aimed at committing to creating a safe and caring community by working in close cooperation with foreign residents, while promoting international exchange and fostering international understanding. The following are the events for you. Please join us so you can reach anyone. * Management of Japanese classroom: Japanese Language classes to help foreign residents by JJ Nihongo Club. * International understanding and exchange: Promoting cultural understanding and exchange with friendship countries, Vietnam, Mali, Azerbaijan and countries of foreign residents living in Ama City. * Management of Aflican music classroom: African Drums, Djembe practice twice a month and performance activities by Djembe Music Band. * Other programs for foreign residents: Training session for disaster prevention, providing information and cosultations. Holding of the 2012 Gathering of Ama Residents for International Exchanges, with 160 Participants Enjoying International Cuisine and Developing Friendships between Countries Held in Jimokuji Kaikan on February 12, the 2012 gathering offered an opportunity to learn how to prepare national dishes of the world under the guidance of some foreign residents, from South Korea, the United States Popal, Taiwan, and Brazi, With attendees enjoying such food and Sekkyo-Genji-Bushi puppet theater—one of the radiational performing arts of Ama—along with a hula performance. Guitar and oboe playing, as well as events performed by community groups and organizations for disaste preparedness, language teaching, and civic engagement, were also featured. Over 20 foreign residents joine his year and interacted with local people. Upcoming program information Japanese language class in the Miwa district (participants recruited for trial lessons). Before officiall starting in September this year, the class will present trial lessons for beginning learners of the Japanese anguage. Local residents volunteer as instructors under the direction of a professional	ACIA's website: http://acia.blog16.jp/ E-mail:ohsumiysh@yahoo.co.jp in close cooperation with foreign residents, while promoting international exchange and fostering international understanding. The following are the events for you. Please join us so you can reach anyone. ^N Management of Japanese classroom: Japanese Language classes to help foreign residents by JJ Nihogo Club. ^I International understanding and exchange: Promoting cultural understanding and exchange with friendship countries. Vietnam, Mali, Azerbaijan and countries of foreign residents living in Ama City. [] Management of Aflican music classroom: African Drums, Djembe practice twice a month and performance activities by Djembe Music Band. [] Other programs for foreign residents: Training session for disaster prevention, providing information and consultations. [] Holding of the 2012 Gathering of Ama Residents for International Exchanges, with 160 Participant: Enjoying International Cuisine and Developing Friendships between Countries [] Holdin Jimokuji Kaikan on February 12, the 2012 gathering offered an opportunity to learn how to prepare national dishes of the world under the guidance of some foreign residents, from South Korea, the United States Nepal, Taiwan, and Brazil, with attendees enjoying such food and Sekkyo-Genji-Bushi puppet theater—one of the raditional performing arts of Ama—along with a hulp performance. [] Guitar and obee playing, as well as events performed by community groups and organizations for disaste preparedness, language teashing, and civic engagement, were also featured. Over 20 foreign residents joine this year and interacted with local people. [] Japanese language class in the Jimokuji district: In FY 2012, the class will be offered again three times (May Soptember, and January). Each class will consist of 10 lessons held on Sunday morning, Wednesday morning and evening, and Saturday morning. [] Contact for inquires: 009-0578-8048 (Takayama-san) or 080-2617-7574 Sato-san) [] Japanese language class in the Miwa district (participants recruite	What is the Ama City International Association(ACIA)?
 [] International understanding and exchange: Promoting cultural understanding and exchange with friendship countries, Vietnam, Mali, Azerbaijan and countries of foreign residents living in Ama City. [] Management of Aflican music classroom: African Drums, Djembe practice twice a month and performance activities by Djembe Music Band. *Other programs for foreign residents: Training session for disaster prevention, providing information and consultations. Holding of the 2012 Gathering of Ama Residents for International Exchanges, with 160 Participants Enjoying International Cuisine and Developing Friendships between Countries Held in Jimokuji Kaikan on February 12, the 2012 gathering offered an opportunity to learn how to prepare national dishes of the world under the guidance of some foreign residents, from South Korea, the United States Papal, Taiwan, and Brazii, with attendees enjoying such food and Sekkyo-Genji-Bushi puppet theater—one of the raditional performing arts of Ama—along with a hula performance. Guitar and obce playing, as well as events performed by community groups and organizations for disaste preparedness, language teaching, and civic engagement, were also featured. Over 20 foreign residents joined this year and interacted with local people. Upcoming program information Japanese language class in the Jimokuji district: In FY 2012, the class will be offered again three times (May September, and January). Each class will consist of 10 lessons held on Sunday morning. Wednesday morning. Location: Jimokuji Kominkan Contact for inquires: 090-6578-8048 (Takayama-san) or 080-2617-7574 (Sato-san) Japanese language class in the Miwa district (participants recruited for trial lessons): Before officially starting in September this year, the class will present trial lessons for beginning learners of the Japanese language. Locat residents volunteer as instructors under the direct	in close cooperation with foreign residents, while promoting international exchange and fostering international understanding. The following are the events for you. Please join us so you can reach anyone. * Management of Japanese classroom: Japanese Language classes to help foreign residents by JJ Nihongo
* Management of Aflican music classroom: African Drums, Djembe practice twice a month and performance activities by Djembe Music Band. * Other programs for foreign residents: Training session for disaster prevention, providing information and consultations. Holding of the 2012 Gathering of Ama Residents for International Exchanges, with 160 Participants Enjoying International Cuisine and Developing Friendships between Countries Held in Jimokuji Kaikan on February 12, the 2012 gathering offered an opportunity to learn how to preparational diskes of the world under the guidance of some foreign residents, from South Korea, the United States Nepal, Taiwan, and Brazil, with attendees enjoying such food and Sekkyo-Genji-Bushi puppet theater—one of the raditional performing arts of Ama—along with a hula performance. Guitar and oboe playing, as well as events performed by community groups and organizations for disaste preparedness, language teaching, and civic engagement, were also featured. Over 20 foreign residents joiner this year and interacted with local people. Upcoming program information Japanese language class in the Jimokuji district: In FY 2012, the class will be offered again three times (May September, and January). Each class will consist of 10 lessons held on Sunday morning. Wednesday morning. Location: Jimokuji Kominkan Contact for inquires: 090-6578-8048 (Takayama-san) or 080-2617-7574 (Sato-san) Japanese language class in the Miwa district (participants recruited for trial lessons): Before officially starting in September this year, the class will present trial lessons for beginning learners of the Japanese language. Local residents volunteer as instructors under the direction of a professional Japanese language. Acoal residents wolunteer as instructors under the direction of a softensional Japanese language. Coal residents on the Arica drine aftica drine paying, dancing, a fashion show, an African exhibition, and there minute walk no	* International understanding and exchange: Promoting cultural understanding and exchange with
 *Other programs for foreign residents: Training session for disaster prevention, providing information and consultations. Holding of the 2012 Gathering of Ama Residents for International Exchanges, with 160 Participant Enjoying International Cuisine and Developing Friendships between Countries Held in Jimokuji Kaikan on February 12, the 2012 gathering offered an opportunity to learn how to preparnational dishes of the world under the guidance of some foreign residents, from South Korea, the United States Nepal, Taiwan, and Brazil, with attendees enjoying such food and Sekkyo-Genji-Bushi puppet theater—one of the raditional performing arts of Ama—along with a hula performance. Guitar and oboe playing, as well as events performed by community groups and organizations for disaste preparedness, language teaching, and civic engagement, were also featured. Over 20 foreign residents joine this year and interacted with local people. Upcoming program information Japanese language class in the Jimokuji district: In FY 2012, the class will be offered again three times (May September, and January). Each class will consist of 10 lessons held on Sunday morning, Wednesday morning. Location: Jimokuji Kominkan Contact for inquires: 090-6578-8048 (Takayama-san) or 080-2617-757. (Sato-san) Japanese language class in the Miwa district (participants recruited for trial lessons): Before officiall starting in September this year, the class will present trial lessons for beginning learners of the Japanese anguage. Local residents volunteer as instructors under the direction of a professional Japanese language Class in the Miwa district (participants recruited for trial lessons): Before officiall starting in September this year, the class will present trial lessons for beginning learners of the Japanese anguage. Local residents volunteer as instructors under the direction of a professional Japanese language (Canter Sch	* Management of Aflican music classroom: African Drums, Djembe practice twice a month and performance
Enjoying International Cuisine and Developing Friendships between Countries Held in Jimokuji Kaikan on February 12, the 2012 gathering offered an opportunity to learn how to prepar- national dishes of the world under the guidance of some foreign residents, from South Korea, the United States Nepal, Taiwan, and Brazil, with attendees enjoying such food and Sekkyo-Genji-Bushi puppet theater—one of the raditional performing arts of Ama—along with a hula performance. Guitar and oboe playing, as well as events performed by community groups and organizations for disasted preparedness, language teaching, and civic engagement, were also featured. Over 20 foreign residents joine this year and interacted with local people. Upcoming program information Japanese language class in the Jimokuji district: In FY 2012, the class will be offered again three times (May September, and January). Each class will consist of 10 lessons held on Sunday morning, Wednesday morning and evening, and Saturday morning. Location: Jimokuji Kominkan Contact for inquires: 090-6578-8048 (Takayama-san) or 080-2617-757 (Sato-san) Japanese language class in the Miwa district (participants recruited for trial lessons): Before officiall starting in September this year, the class will present trial lessons for beginning learners of the Japanese anguage. Local residents volunteer as instructors under the direction of a professional Japanese language teacher. Scheduled date and time: 4:00 p.m. to 5:30 p.m. on Sundays during April Location: Miwa Joho-Furea Contact for inquires: 090-3932-5931 or ohsumiysh@yahoo.co.jp Community event information: Ama Africa (African festival), Saturday, June 2 and Sunday, June 3, which wi feature djembe percussion and other African drum playing, dancing, a fashion show, an African exhibition, an other programs Location: Amashi-Miwa Bunka Kaikan, a 10-minute walk north from Meitetsu Kida Station Recruiting for volunteer staff members Contact for inquires: 080-5297-7665 or amafrica2012@gmail.jp Volunte	*Other programs for foreign residents: Training session for disaster prevention, providing information and
Enjoying International Cuisine and Developing Friendships between Countries Held in Jimokuji Kaikan on February 12, the 2012 gathering offered an opportunity to learn how to prepara national dishes of the world under the guidance of some foreign residents, from South Korea, the United States Nepal, Taiwan, and Brazil, with attendees enjoying such food and Sekkyo-Genji-Bushi puppet theater—one of the raditional performing arts of Ama—along with a hula performance. Guitar and oboe playing, as well as events performed by community groups and organizations for disaste preparedness, language teaching, and civic engagement, were also featured. Over 20 foreign residents joiner this year and interacted with local people. Upcoming program information Japanese language class in the Jimokuji district: In FY 2012, the class will be offered again three times (May September, and January). Each class will consist of 10 lessons held on Sunday morning, Wednesday morning and evening, and Saturday morning. Location: Jimokuji Kominkan Contact for inquires: 090-6578-8048 (Takayama-san) or 080-2617-757. (Sato-san) Japanese language class in the Miwa district (participants recruited for trial lessons): Before officially starting in September this year, the class will present trial lessons for beginning learners of the Japanese anguage. Local residents volunteer as instructors under the direction of a professional Japanese language teacher. Scheduled date and time: 4:00 p.m. to 5:30 p.m. on Sundays during April Location: Miwa Joho-Furea Center, a five-minute walk north from Meitetsu Kida Station Fee: Free of charge Contact for inquires: 090-3932-5931 or ohsumiysh@yahoo.co.jp Community event information: Ama Africa (African festival), Saturday, June 2 and Sunday, June 3, which wi feature djembe percussion and other African drum playing, dancing, a fashion show, an African exhibition, and other programs Location: Amashi-Miwa Bunka Kaikan, a 10-minute walk north from Meitetsu Kida Station Recruiting for volunteer	Holding of the 2012 Gathering of Ama Residents for International Exchanges, with 160 Participant
national dishes of the world under the guidance of some foreign residents, from South Korea, the United States Nepal, Taiwan, and Brazil, with attendees enjoying such food and Sekkyo-Genji-Bushi puppet theater—one of the rraditional performing arts of Ama—along with a hula performance. Guitar and oboe playing, as well as events performed by community groups and organizations for disaste preparedness, language teaching, and civic engagement, were also featured. Over 20 foreign residents joined this year and interacted with local people. Upcoming program information Japanese language class in the Jimokuji district: In FY 2012, the class will be offered again three times (May September, and January). Each class will consist of 10 lessons held on Sunday morning, Wednesday morning and evening, and Saturday morning. Location: Jimokuji Kominkan Contact for inquires: 090-6578-8048 (Takayama-san) or 080-2617-7578 (Sato-san) Japanese language class in the Miwa district (participants recruited for trial lessons): Before officiall starting in September this year, the class will present trial lessons for beginning learners of the Japanese anguage. Local residents volunteer as instructors under the direction of a professional Japanese language teacher. Scheduled date and time: 4:00 p.m. to 5:30 p.m. on Sundays during April Location: Miwa Joho-Furea Center, a five-minute walk north from Meitetsu Kida Station Fee: Free of charge Contact for inquires: 090-3932-5931 or ohsumiysh@yahoo.co.jp Community event information: Ama Africa (African festival), Saturday, June 2 and Sunday, June 3, which wi feature djemb e percussion and other African drum playing, dancing, a fashion show, an African exhibition, and other programs Location: Amashi-Miwa Bunka Kaikan, a 10-minute walk north from Meitetsu Kida Station Recruiting for volunteer staff members Contact for inquires: 080-5297-7665 or amafrica2012@gmail.jp Volunteer sare needed to help non-Japanese residents who seek guidance regarding life in Ama. • Languages: Chinese, Portuguese,	Enjoying International Cuisine and Developing Friendships between Countries
Guitar and oboe playing, as well as events performed by community groups and organizations for disasted bereparedness, language teaching, and civic engagement, were also featured. Over 20 foreign residents joined this year and interacted with local people. Upcoming program information Japanese language class in the Jimokuji district: In FY 2012, the class will be offered again three times (May September, and January). Each class will consist of 10 lessons held on Sunday morning, Wednesday morning and evening, and Saturday morning. Location: Jimokuji Kominkan Contact for inquires: 090-6578-8048 (Takayama-san) or 080-2617-757 (Sato-san) Japanese language class in the Miwa district (participants recruited for trial lessons): Before officiall starting in September this year, the class will present trial lessons for beginning learners of the Japanese anguage. Local residents volunteer as instructors under the direction of a professional Japanese language teacher. Scheduled date and time: 4:00 p.m. to 5:30 p.m. on Sundays during April Location: Niwa Joho-Furea Center, a five-minute walk north from Meitetsu Kida Station Fee: Free of charge Contact for inquires: 090-3932-5931 or ohsumiysh@yahoo.co.jp Community event information: Ama Africa (African festival), Saturday, June 2 and Sunday, June 3, which wite taure djembe percussion and other African drum playing, dancing, a fashion show, an African exhibition, and other programs Location: Amashi-Miwa Bunka Kaikan, a 10-minute walk north from Meitetsu Kida Station Recruiting for volunteer staff members Contact for inquires: 080-5297-7665 or amafrica2012@gmail.jp Volunteer recruiting for assisting foreign nationals living in the city Volunteer recruiting for assisting foreign nationals living in the city Non-Japanese volunteers are also welcome, but they need to have enough Japanese proficiency to perform thi task. Contact for inquires: 090-6578-8048 (Takayama-san) Useful Mulfilingual websife :	national dishes of the world under the guidance of some foreign residents, from South Korea, the United States Nepal, Taiwan, and Brazil, with attendees enjoying such food and Sekkyo-Genji-Bushi puppet theater—one of the breparedness, language teaching, and civic engagement, were also featured. Over 20 foreign residents joine this year and interacted with local people. Upcoming program information Japanese language class in the Jimokuji district: In FY 2012, the class will be offered again three times (Mar September, and January). Each class will consist of 10 lessons held on Sunday morning, Wednesday mornin and evening, and Saturday morning. Location: Jimokuji Kominkan Contact for inquires: 090-6578-8048 (Takayama-san) or 080-2617-757 (Sato-san) Japanese language class in the Miwa district (participants recruited for trial lessons): Before officiall starting in September this year, the class will present trial lessons for beginning learners of the Japanese anguage. Local residents volunteer as instructors under the direction of a professional Japanese language teacher. Scheduled date and time: 4:00 p.m. to 5:30 p.m. on Sundays during April Location: Miwa Joho-Furee Center, a five-minute walk north from Meitetsu Kida Station Fee: Free of charge Contact for inquires: 090-3932-5931 or ohsumiysh@yahoo.co.jp Community event information: Ama Africa (African festival), Saturday, June 2 and Sunday, June 3, which will reacture djembe percussion and other African drum playing, dancing, a fashion show, an African exhibition, and other programs Location: Amashi-Miwa Bunka Kaikan, a 10-minute walk north from Meitetsu Kida Station Recruiting for volunteer staff members Contact for inquires: 080-5297-7665 or amafrica2012@gmail.jp Volunteers are needed to help non-Japanese residents who seek guidance regarding life in Ama. • Languages: Chinese, Portuguese, Filipino, English, Vietnamese, and others • Non-Japanese volunteers are also welcome, but they need to have enough Japanese proficiency to perform this task. Contact for inquires: 090-6578-8048 (Takayama-san) Useful Mulfillingual websifte :
this year and interacted with local people. Upcoming program information Japanese language class in the Jimokuji district: In FY 2012, the class will be offered again three times (May September, and January). Each class will consist of 10 lessons held on Sunday morning, Wednesday mornin and evening, and Saturday morning. Location: Jimokuji Kominkan Contact for inquires: 090-6578-8048 (Takayama-san) or 080-2617-757 (Sato-san) Japanese language class in the Miwa district (participants recruited for trial lessons): Before officiall starting in September this year, the class will present trial lessons for beginning learners of the Japanese anguage. Local residents volunteer as instructors under the direction of a professional Japanese language teacher. Scheduled date and time: 4:00 p.m. to 5:30 p.m. on Sundays during April Location: Miwa Joho-Fureet Center, a five-minute walk north from Meitetsu Kida Station Fee: Free of charge Contact for inquires: 090-3932-5931 or ohsumiysh@yahoo.co.jp Community event information: Ama Africa (African festival), Saturday, June 2 and Sunday, June 3, which will feature djembe percussion and other African drum playing, dancing, a fashion show, an African exhibition, and other programs Location: Amashi-Miwa Bunka Kaikan, a 10-minute walk north from Meitetsu Kida Station Recruiting for volunteer staff members Contact for inquires: 080-5297-7665 or amafrica2012@gmail.jp Volunteer recruiting for assisting foreign nationals living in the city Volunteers are needed to help non-Japanese residents who seek guidance regarding life in Ama. • Languages: Chinese, Portuguese, Filipino, English, Vietnamese, and others • Non-Japanese volunteers are also welcome, but they need to have enough Japanese proficiency to perform this task. Contact for inquires: 090-6578-8048 (Takayama-san) Useful Mulfillingual websife :
Upcoming program information Japanese language class in the Jimokuji district: In FY 2012, the class will be offered again three times (May September, and January). Each class will consist of 10 lessons held on Sunday morning, Wednesday mornin and evening, and Saturday morning. Location: Jimokuji Kominkan Contact for inquires: 090-6578-8048 (Takayama-san) or 080-2617-757 (Sato-san) Japanese language class in the Miwa district (participants recruited for trial lessons): Before officiall starting in September this year, the class will present trial lessons for beginning learners of the Japanese anguage. Local residents volunteer as instructors under the direction of a professional Japanese language teacher. Scheduled date and time: 4:00 p.m. to 5:30 p.m. on Sundays during April Location: Miwa Joho-Furee Center, a five-minute walk north from Meitetsu Kida Station Fee: Free of charge Contact for inquires: 090-3932-5931 or ohsumiysh@yahoo.co.jp Community event information: Ama Africa (African festival), Saturday, June 2 and Sunday, June 3, which wi feature djembe percussion and other African drum playing, dancing, a fashion show, an African exhibition, an other programs Location: Amashi-Miwa Bunka Kaikan, a 10-minute walk north from Meitetsu Kida Statio Recruiting for volunteer staff members Contact for inquires: 080-5297-7665 or amafrica2012@gmail.jp Volunteer seare needed to help non-Japanese residents who seek guidance regarding life in Ama. Languages: Chinese, Portuguese, Filipino, English, Vietnamese, and others Non-Japanese volunteers are also welcome, but they need to have enough Japanese proficiency to perform thi task. Contact for inquires: 090-6578-8048 (Takayama-san) Useful Multilingual website :
 Japanese language class in the Jimokuji district: In FY 2012, the class will be offered again three times (May September, and January). Each class will consist of 10 lessons held on Sunday morning, Wednesday morning and evening, and Saturday morning. Location: Jimokuji Kominkan Contact for inquires: 090-6578-8048 (Takayama-san) or 080-2617-757. (Sato-san) Japanese language class in the Miwa district (participants recruited for trial lessons): Before officiall starting in September this year, the class will present trial lessons for beginning learners of the Japanese language. Local residents volunteer as instructors under the direction of a professional Japanese language teacher. Scheduled date and time: 4:00 p.m. to 5:30 p.m. on Sundays during April Location: Miwa Joho-Fureat Center, a five-minute walk north from Meitetsu Kida Station Fee: Free of charge Contact for inquires: 090-3932-5931 or ohsumiysh@yahoo.co.jp Community event information: Ama Africa (African festival), Saturday, June 2 and Sunday, June 3, which wite feature djembe percussion and other African drum playing, dancing, a fashion show, an African exhibition, an other programs Location: Amashi-Miwa Bunka Kaikan, a 10-minute walk north from Meitetsu Kida Station Recruiting for volunteer staff members Contact for inquires: 080-5297-7665 or amafrica2012@gmail.jp Volunteer recruiting for assisting foreign nationals living in the city Volunteer s are needed to help non-Japanese residents who seek guidance regarding life in Ama. Languages: Chinese, Portuguese, Filipino, English, Vietnamese, and others Non-Japanese volunteers are also welcome, but they need to have enough Japanese proficiency to perform thi task. Contact for inquires: 090-6578-8048 (Takayama-san) Useful Mulfilingual websife :
September, and January). Each class will consist of 10 lessons held on Sunday morning, Wednesday morning and evening, and Saturday morning. Location: Jimokuji Kominkan Contact for inquires: 090-6578-8048 (Takayama-san) or 080-2617-757 (Sato-san) Japanese language class in the Miwa district (participants recruited for trial lessons): Before officiall starting in September this year, the class will present trial lessons for beginning learners of the Japanese anguage. Local residents volunteer as instructors under the direction of a professional Japanese language teacher. Scheduled date and time: 4:00 p.m. to 5:30 p.m. on Sundays during April Location: Miwa Joho-Furea Center, a five-minute walk north from Meitetsu Kida Station Fee: Free of charge Contact for inquires: 090-3932-5931 or ohsumiysh@yahoo.co.jp Community event information: Ama Africa (African festival), Saturday, June 2 and Sunday, June 3, which wi feature djembe percussion and other African drum playing, dancing, a fashion show, an African exhibition, an other programs Location: Amashi-Miwa Bunka Kaikan, a 10-minute walk north from Meitetsu Kida Statio Recruiting for volunteer staff members Contact for inquires: 080-5297-7665 or amafrica2012@gmail.jp Volunteers are needed to help non-Japanese residents who seek guidance regarding life in Ama. • Languages: Chinese, Portuguese, Filipino, English, Vietnamese, and others • Non-Japanese volunteers are also welcome, but they need to have enough Japanese proficiency to perform thi task. Contact for inquires: 090-6578-8048 (Takayama-san) Useful Mulfilingual website :
and evening, and Saturday morning. Location: Jimokuji Kominkan Contact for inquires: 090-6578-8048 (Takayama-san) or 080-2617-757 (Sato-san) Japanese language class in the Miwa district (participants recruited for trial lessons): Before officiall starting in September this year, the class will present trial lessons for beginning learners of the Japanese anguage. Local residents volunteer as instructors under the direction of a professional Japanese languag teacher. Scheduled date and time: 4:00 p.m. to 5:30 p.m. on Sundays during April Location: Miwa Joho-Furea Center, a five-minute walk north from Meitetsu Kida Station Fee: Free of charge Contact for inquires: 090-3932-5931 or ohsumiysh@yahoo.co.jp Community event information: Ama Africa (African festival), Saturday, June 2 and Sunday, June 3, which wi feature djembe percussion and other African drum playing, dancing, a fashion show, an African exhibition, an other programs Location: Amashi-Miwa Bunka Kaikan, a 10-minute walk north from Meitetsu Kida Statio Recruiting for volunteer staff members Contact for inquires: 080-5297-7665 or amafrica2012@gmail.jp Volunteers are needed to help non-Japanese residents who seek guidance regarding life in Ama. • Languages: Chinese, Portuguese, Filipino, English, Vietnamese, and others • Non-Japanese volunteers are also welcome, but they need to have enough Japanese proficiency to perform thi task. Contact for inquires: 090-6578-8048 (Takayama-san) Useful Mulfilingual website :
Location: Jimokuji Kominkan Contact for inquires: 090-6578-8048 (Takayama-san) or 080-2617-757 (Sato-san) Japanese language class in the Miwa district (participants recruited for trial lessons): Before officiall starting in September this year, the class will present trial lessons for beginning learners of the Japanese anguage. Local residents volunteer as instructors under the direction of a professional Japanese languag teacher. Scheduled date and time: 4:00 p.m. to 5:30 p.m. on Sundays during April Location: Miwa Joho-Furea Center, a five-minute walk north from Meitetsu Kida Station Fee: Free of charge Contact for inquires: 090-3932-5931 or ohsumiysh@yahoo.co.jp Community event information: Ama Africa (African festival), Saturday, June 2 and Sunday, June 3, which wi feature djembe percussion and other African drum playing, dancing, a fashion show, an African exhibition, an other programs Location: Amashi-Miwa Bunka Kaikan, a 10-minute walk north from Meitetsu Kida Statio Recruiting for volunteer staff members Contact for inquires: 080-5297-7665 or amafrica2012@gmail.jp Volunteer s are needed to help non-Japanese residents who seek guidance regarding life in Ama. • Languages: Chinese, Portuguese, Filipino, English, Vietnamese, and others • Non-Japanese volunteers are also welcome, but they need to have enough Japanese proficiency to perform thi task. Contact for inquires: 090-6578-8048 (Takayama-san) Useful Mulfilingual websife :
Japanese language class in the Miwa district (participants recruited for trial lessons): Before officiall starting in September this year, the class will present trial lessons for beginning learners of the Japanese anguage. Local residents volunteer as instructors under the direction of a professional Japanese language teacher. Scheduled date and time: 4:00 p.m. to 5:30 p.m. on Sundays during April Location: Miwa Joho-Fureac Center, a five-minute walk north from Meitetsu Kida Station Fee: Free of charge Contact for inquires: 090-3932-5931 or ohsumiysh@yahoo.co.jp Community event information: Ama Africa (African festival), Saturday, June 2 and Sunday, June 3, which with feature djembe percussion and other African drum playing, dancing, a fashion show, an African exhibition, an other programs Location: Amashi-Miwa Bunka Kaikan, a 10-minute walk north from Meitetsu Kida Station Recruiting for volunteer staff members Contact for inquires: 080-5297-7665 or amafrica2012@gmail.jp Volunteers are needed to help non-Japanese residents who seek guidance regarding life in Ama. Languages: Chinese, Portuguese, Filipino, English, Vietnamese, and others Non-Japanese volunteers are also welcome, but they need to have enough Japanese proficiency to perform thi task. Contact for inquires: 090-6578-8048 (Takayama-san) Useful Mulfillingual website :	Location: Jimokuji Kominkan Contact for inquires: 090-6578-8048 (Takayama-san) or 080-2617-757
Community event information: Ama Africa (African festival), Saturday, June 2 and Sunday, June 3, which wi feature djembe percussion and other African drum playing, dancing, a fashion show, an African exhibition, an other programs Location: Amashi-Miwa Bunka Kaikan, a 10-minute walk north from Meitetsu Kida Statio Recruiting for volunteer staff members Contact for inquires: 080-5297-7665 or amafrica2012@gmail.jp Volunteer recruiting for assisting foreign nationals living in the city Volunteers are needed to help non-Japanese residents who seek guidance regarding life in Ama. • Languages: Chinese, Portuguese, Filipino, English, Vietnamese, and others • Non-Japanese volunteers are also welcome, but they need to have enough Japanese proficiency to perform this task. Contact for inquires: 090-6578-8048 (Takayama-san) Useful Mulfilingual website :	Japanese language class in the Miwa district (participants recruited for trial lessons): Before official starting in September this year, the class will present trial lessons for beginning learners of the Japanese language. Local residents volunteer as instructors under the direction of a professional Japanese language teature djembe percussion and other African drum playing, dancing, a fashion show, an African exhibition, an other programs Location: Amashi-Miwa Bunka Kaikan, a 10-minute walk north from Meitetsu Kida Statio Recruiting for volunteer staff members Contact for inquires: 080-5297-7665 or amafrica2012@gmail.jp Volunteer recruiting for assisting foreign nationals living in the city Volunteers are needed to help non-Japanese residents who seek guidance regarding life in Ama. Languages: Chinese, Portuguese, Filipino, English, Vietnamese, and others Non-Japanese volunteers are also welcome, but they need to have enough Japanese proficiency to perform thi task. Contact for inquires: 090-6578-8048 (Takayama-san) Useful Mulfilingual website : 	Fee: Free of charge Contact for inquires: 090-3932-5931 or ohsumiysh@yahoo.co.jp other programs Location: Amashi-Miwa Bunka Kaikan, a 10-minute walk north from Meitetsu Kida Statio Recruiting for volunteer staff members Contact for inquires: 080-5297-7665 or amafrica2012@gmail.jp Volunteer recruiting for assisting foreign nationals living in the city Volunteers are needed to help non-Japanese residents who seek guidance regarding life in Ama. • Languages: Chinese, Portuguese, Filipino, English, Vietnamese, and others • Non-Japanese volunteers are also welcome, but they need to have enough Japanese proficiency to perform thi task. Contact for inquires: 090-6578-8048 (Takayama-san) Useful Mulfilingual websife :	Community event information: Ama Africa (African festival), Saturday, June 2 and Sunday, June 3, which w
Recruiting for volunteer staff members Contact for inquires: 080-5297-7665 or amafrica2012@gmail.jp Volunteer recruiting for assisting foreign nationals living in the city Volunteers are needed to help non-Japanese residents who seek guidance regarding life in Ama. • Languages: Chinese, Portuguese, Filipino, English, Vietnamese, and others • Non-Japanese volunteers are also welcome, but they need to have enough Japanese proficiency to perform th task. Contact for inquires: 090-6578-8048 (Takayama-san) Useful Mulfilingual websife :	feature djembe percussion and other African drum playing, dancing, a fashion show, an African exhibition, an
Volunteer recruiting for assisting foreign nationals living in the city Volunteers are needed to help non-Japanese residents who seek guidance regarding life in Ama. • Languages: Chinese, Portuguese, Filipino, English, Vietnamese, and others • Non-Japanese volunteers are also welcome, but they need to have enough Japanese proficiency to perform th task. Contact for inquires: 090-6578-8048 (Takayama-san) Useful Mulfilingual websife :	other programs Location: Amashi-Miwa Bunka Kaikan, a 10-minute walk north from Meitetsu Kida Static
Volunteers are needed to help non-Japanese residents who seek guidance regarding life in Ama. • Languages: Chinese, Portuguese, Filipino, English, Vietnamese, and others • Non-Japanese volunteers are also welcome, but they need to have enough Japanese proficiency to perform this task. Contact for inquires: 090-6578-8048 (Takayama-san) Useful Mulfilingual websife:	Recruiting for volunteer staff members Contact for inquires: 080-5297-7665 or amafrica2012@gmail.jp
 Languages: Chinese, Portuguese, Filipino, English, Vietnamese, and others Non-Japanese volunteers are also welcome, but they need to have enough Japanese proficiency to perform thiask. Contact for inquires: 090-6578-8048 (Takayama-san) Useful Multilingual website: 	Volunteer recruiting for assisting foreign nationals living in the city
 Non-Japanese volunteers are also welcome, but they need to have enough Japanese proficiency to perform this task. Contact for inquires: 090-6578-8048 (Takayama-san) Useful Multilingual website : 	Volunteers are needed to help non-Japanese residents who seek guidance regarding life in Ama.
ask. Contact for inquires: 090-6578-8048 (Takayama-san) Useful Multilingual website :	 Languages: Chinese, Portuguese, Filipino, English, Vietnamese, and others
Useful Multilingual website :	• Non-Japanese volunteers are also welcome, but they need to have enough Japanese proficiency to perform th
-
st Aichi Medical Interpretations System starts: Available in English, Chinese, Portuguese, and Spanish	Useful Multilingual website :
www.aichi-iryou-tsuyaku-system.com	* Aichi Medical Interpretations System starts: Available in English, Chinese, Portuguese, and Spanish www.aichi-iryou-tsuyaku-system.com
* Aichi International Association : including Multilingual Consultation. www2.aia.pref.aichi.jp /	* Aichi International Association : including Multilingual Consultation. www2.aia.pref.aichi.jp /

Aichi International Association : including Multilingual Consultation. www2.aia.pref.aichi.jp /